Loire

The Loire is a classic ridge tent with options that turn it into one of the prettiest tents available on the market today. The core tent, with its curved rear, has a generous 7.5m² of floor space and its side wall height of 80cm means it can easily accommodate a camp bed. To the base tent you can add an over tent for extra weather protection, a sizeable porch and even an apse opposite the tent entrance giving the Loire a beautifully symmetrical look. Made from hard wearing and quick drying material this pretty tent will last for years and always look good.

- Highly versatile ridge tent
- Good side-wall height
- Over roof for additional weather protection
